First Citizens National Bank Announces Employees of the Year

MANSFIELD, PA (February 2010)... First Citizens National Bank, headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania, honored their 2009 Employees of the Year during a recent in-service day. Honored were Corey Dean, Network Administrator in the Mansfield Operations Center, and Kevin Green, Mansfield Community Office Manager.

Employees receiving this award must show a consistent amount of dedication, professional attitude, and concern for the customer and their fellow employees. Both Corey and Kevin have surpassed the expectations of this prestigious award.

Corey Dean joined First Citizens National Bank in 1999 as a Network Administrator. He specializes in e-mail administration, telecommunications and information security – areas vital to the efficient operation of the bank. Corey excels at trouble shooting network and communications issues. In addition, his drive to stay current with the technologies that impact his area has played a crucial role in the bank's expansion efforts. Corey lives in Wellsboro with his wife Amy, son Jarret, and daughter Isabella.

In October, 2006, Kevin Green joined First Citizens as Manger of the Mansfield Community Office. He plays a significant role in the office's consumer and commercial business development efforts. Kevin knows the Mansfield Community and is involved in many organizations focused on its welfare. This knowledge and involvement has allowed him to successfully identify opportunities for First Citizens to contribute to the financial success of consumers and small businesses in the Mansfield market. In 2010, Kevin will complete his 3rd and final year of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Advanced School of Banking. He is Treasurer of the Mansfield Little League, active in the Mansfield Kiwanis Club, and is the Director and Secretary of the Betterment Organization of Mansfield (B.O.O.M). Kevin and his wife, Rachel, reside in Mansfield with their sons, Jacob and Andrew.

“We are challenged each year to select just 2 employees for this honor,” stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. “Corey and Kevin's enthusiasm for their jobs and their dedication to First Citizens is commendable. They both exhibit unique leadership skills that are important to their individual success and the success of organization. We are fortunate to have them as part of our team.”
