FIRST CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK CONTINUES TO SUPPORT CANCER AWARENESS AND RESEARCH

MANSFIELD, PA (July 2011)... First Citizens National Bank has concluded their 2011 fund-raising efforts to support Cancer awareness and research. For over 18 years, First Citizens has been committed to this very worthy cause, and this year their efforts raised over $16,500.

Employees continue to find new ways to raise money. In addition to their participation in the annual Relay for Life Walk-a-Thon at Mansfield University, they organized the first Bark-For-Life fundraiser this past spring.

First Citizens also hosted the 12th annual Cancer Classic on May 25th, 2011 at Corey Creek Golf Club in Mansfield. This year, 36 teams participated with the winning team consisting of Tom Jones, Mark Howe, Eric Loudenslager, and Ray Ostrom. This event alone raised $12,200.

"We're very proud of our employees' continued dedication to finding a cure for this terrible disease," stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. "They are truly committed to make a difference in the lives of others."

First Citizens National Bank, headquartered in Mansfield, has offices located in Blossburg, Ulysses, Genesee, Sayre, Wellsboro, Troy, Canton, Gillett, Millerton (StateLine), LeRaysville, Rome, Towanda, and Wellsville, NY as well as two in-store offices in the Mansfield Wal-Mart and Wellsboro Weis Market, and one Loan Processing Office in Lock Haven.
