Four Retire From First Citizens National Bank

COMMUNITY OFFICES (May 2009)--Four longtime employees of First Citizens National Bank have announced their retirement.

Mary Brooks, Customer Service Counselor I in the Ulysses office retired on April 17 after 25 years of service with First Citizens. Mary began her banking career in 1983 as a Teller in the Ulysses office. In 1994, she was promoted to Customer Service Counselor and became responsible for the sales and service of new deposit accounts. Mary resides in Westfield with her husband Robert.

Judy Burleigh, a Customer Service Counselor II in the Towanda office, retired on April 24. Judy joined First Citizens in 2000 as part of the Sovereign Bank acquisition. Her banking career began in 1982 and she has held many positions throughout her 27 years most recently serving as lender and new accounts representative. Judy resides in Towanda with her husband Joseph.

Diane Slotter joined the First Citizens family as a Customer Service Counselor I as a result of the 2000 Sovereign acquisition. In 2001, she was promoted to a Customer Service Counselor II position in the Canton office adding lending to her responsibilities for new account acquisition and service. Diane has worked in banking since 1981 and held various positions throughout her 28 year career. May 29 will be Diane's last day. She resides in Troy with her husband Willis.

Judy Jayne, a Customer Service Representative in Canton, began working as a teller at First Citizens in 1973. Throughout her banking career, Judy has held various positions throughout the bank and has serviced First Citizens as Teller for the last nine years. Judy resides in Canton, and her last day of work will be May 15.

"We have been very blessed to have had such caring and professional individuals as part of our family for such a long time," stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. "Employees and customers who have had the good fortune of working with them have experienced first hand their loyalty to the bank and their passion for providing first-class service. We wish them all the best in their retirement."
