First Citizens National Bank Announces Employee Promotions

MANSFIELD, PA (October 2010)... First Citizens National Bank has announced the promotion of two employees, Jeff Wilson and Chris Landis.

Jeff Wilson was promoted to a new Chief Lending Officer position, in which he is responsible for all commercial lending activities. He will also be responsible for commercial business growth and profitability. Wilson was hired in 1987 as branch manager of the Ulysses office. In 2001, he was promoted to the position of V. P., Business Development Officer, in which he was responsible for commercial loans and business development in the West region. Jeff is a recipient of the Employee of the Year award, and is a graduate of many banking schools—the Central Atlantic School of Banking; Central Atlantic Commercial Lending School; the Southwestern Graduate School of Commercial Lending, and the Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He currently holds his Series 6 and 63 licenses.

Jeff serves as treasurer for Wellsboro Small Fry Football, and as board member of the Wellsboro Parks and Recreation committee. In addition, he serves on the finance committee of the Wellsboro Chamber of Commerce, and on the board of the Northern Tier Regional Planning and Development Commission. Jeff and his wife Di have two children, Brock and Peyton, and reside in Wellsboro.

Chris Landis was promoted to a new Senior Lending Officer position, where he will provide BDO leadership to the East region. In his new position, Chris will be responsible for BDO leadership and commercial business growth and profitability. Prior to joining First Citizens in 1996 as the Canton Office Manager, Landis was an Ag Lender for Northeastern Farm Credit. In 2001, was promoted to V.P. Commercial Lending. Chris was awarded Employee of the Year in 2000, and is a graduate of the Central Atlantic School of Commercial Lending, and the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Advanced School of Banking.

Chris serves his community as president of the Canton Alumni Association, and is a board member of the Canton High School Foundation. He is worship leader and elder at the New Life Church. He and his wife, Lianne, reside in Canton with their five children—Ethan, Emalee, Isaac, Cohen, and Kyli.

“Jeff and Chris’s hard work and extensive commercial lending experience will allow us to excel in our commercial loan growth” stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. “In these new leadership roles, they will now provide guidance and oversight to our BDOs, which is an asset to our communities and our organization.”

First Citizens National Bank is headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania and currently operates 16 offices in Tioga, Bradford and Potter Counties in PA, and Alleghany County, NY. For more information on First Citizens National Bank, visit www.firstcitizensbank.com
