First Citizens National Bank Announces Board Appointments

MANSFIELD, PA —Randall E. Black, CEO and President of First Citizens National Bank in Mansfield, PA, has announced the appointment of Mark Gannon, Richard Jones, Rick Hoover, and Byron Wright to local Boards of Directors in the East Region of the bank's market.

Mark Gannon will serve on the Towanda Local Board of Directors. He is a graduate of Penn State University, and is CEO of Gannon Associates in Towanda. He is a board member of the Towanda Area School District, the Bradford County United Way, and the Towanda Memorial Hospital. Mark is President of the Towanda Area School District Foundation, and is a volunteer track coach for Towanda High School. He and his family reside in Wysox.

Richard Jones will serve on the LeRaysville / Rome Local Board. He is the third generation Owner-Operator of Jones Garage in Rome, and volunteers for the Vigilante Fire Company and the Rome Cemetery Association. Richard Coaches NEBALL Little League and Upward Basketball. He lives in Rome with his wife and children.

Rick Hoover and Byron Wright have both joined the Troy / Gillett / Stateline local board. Rick is a graduate of Penn State University and is president of Hoover Hardware and Gifts in Troy, PA. Rick's community involvement includes serving on the Alparon Park Committee, the Maple Festival Committee, and member of the Scottish Rite, Valley of Towanda and Consistory Valley of Williamsport. Rick and his family live in Troy.

Byron Wright graduated from Williamsport Area Community College, and is founder and President of Wrightcut EDM & Machine Inc in Elmira. Byron serves as Fire Chief for the Big Elm Fire Department, Treasurer for the Jackson Township Fireman's Relief Association, and is the Wells Jackson Little League Coach. He volunteers for the Wells Township Park Committee. Byron and his family reside in Gillett.

"We are pleased to have such a strong group of local business owners who are so involved in their communities join our local boards," stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. "Local board members are our direct link to what's going on in the community and allow us to further strengthen our partnership with the consumers and businesses in those communities. All of these individuals will play a integral role in growing the markets in our East region."
