First Citizens Grows with the Addition of New Business Development Officer

(MANSFIELD PA – January 2017) …First Citizens Community Bank is pleased to announce the addition of Shawn Tobin as a Business Development Officer in their Schuylkill County market. The addition of Tobin supports the bank's growth initiative into the South-Central part of Pennsylvania, which began in December of 2015 with their acquisition of The First National Bank of Fredericksburg.

In his role with First Citizens, Tobin will focus primarily on business development and commercial loan originations in the Schuylkill county region. His experience in sales and professional development will provide support and leadership to two First Citizens offices, Schuylkill Haven and Friedensburg.

Prior to joining First Citizens, Tobin worked for M&T Bank as a branch manager. In 2014, while employed by Santander Bank, he was recognized as the acquisition champion team leader, ranked second out of three hundred for team sales production and finished number one in the entire network of 700 branches for investment referrals totaling $5 million.

"Shawn's energy and passion for serving the customer is contagious. We are pleased to add him to our team of experienced business development officers," stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President of First Citizens. "His talent and expertise in leadership, training and business development will assist us in accomplishing the strategic goals established for our South-Central market."

Tobin is an active member of the Mahanoy Chamber of Commerce.
