First Citizens Announces 2018 Scholarship Recipients

MANSFIELD, PA (September 2018) First Citizens Community Bank has awarded three students scholarships for their academic success and community involvement. Congratulations to Alexis Jackson (Peach Bottom), Jenna Harnish (Ulster) and Zachary Lundgren (Mansfield).

The 2018 Ag Scholarship recipients were Alexis Jackson and Jenna Harnish. The First Citizens Agricultural Scholarship has been awarded annually since 2012 to a senior high school student who plans to continue their education in an agricultural-related field. Jackson and Harnish were chosen for their dedication to Agriculture and their commitment to their communities. They've participated and organized many community service events while supporting their family farms.

Jackson will attend Delaware Valley University studying Environmental Science/Biology. She is a member of the Solanco National Honor Society, Solanco Future Farmers of America Program, Rough Riders 4-H Horse and Pony Club, the Solanco Spanish Honor Society and Solanco Track and Field.

Harnish will attend Penn State University studying Toxicology. She is a member of the Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honors Society, the Athens Future Farmers of America and worked for Bradford County Dairy Princess Promotional Services.

Zachary Lundgren was the recipient of the Mansfield University Employee Scholarship. The Mansfield University Employee Scholarship is awarded to an employee or local director of First Citizens, or their dependent. Lundgren's father, Matt, works for the Bank as their Data Integrity Manager. Lundgren is entering his Freshman Year at Mansfield University. For three years he has participated in the annual highway clean up at Tyoga Country Club and is involved in many aspects of community service at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

"Each winner has shown true commitment to their community, without sacrificing education," commented Randall E. Black, CEO and President of First Citizens. "First Citizens congratulates each on receiving these awards, and wishes them the best in their future endeavors."
