Miller Joins First Citizens Troy Area Local Board

MANSFIELD, PA (May 2018) First Citizens Community Bank recently welcomed Amanda Miller to their Troy Area Local Board. In this role, she will be a communication channel for the bank – providing them with information on community needs while delivering the banks message back to businesses and residents in the area.

Miller graduated from Cornell University with a Bachelors Degree in Communications and a concentration in International Agriculture. She is the co-owner of Sugar Branch Farms, a 500-cow dairy farm, in Columbia Cross Roads, PA. Miller and her husband also manage Sopertown Seeds (Columbia Cross Roads), channeling seed development for soybeans and corn. Before owning and operating the farm and seed business, she worked for Elanco as their Executive Communications Manager and as the Marketing Director of Food Industry and Consumer Affairs. Miller is a board member of the Northeast Agriculture Education Foundation and a Board Director at the Bradford/Sullivan County Farm Bureau.

She joins Troy local board members Rick Hoover (Owner, Hoover Hardware), John Huntington (Owner, John Huntington Motors), Gregory Jones (Owner, Gregory S. Jones Contracting), and Betsy Seeley (Retired Teacher, Troy Area School District).

First Citizens Community Bank is headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania. They currently operate 28 offices throughout Tioga, Bradford, Potter, Clinton, Union, Centre, Lebanon, Lancaster, Schuylkill and Berks counties in Pennsylvania and Allegany County New York.
