First Citizens Raises $15,350 to Support Cancer Research

MANSFIELD, PA (August 2018) Over 140 golfers met on Corey Creek Golf Course outside of Mansfield for a day of friendly competition, good food and the chance to win some great prizes. And the numbers are in — The 19th Annual First Citizens Community Bank Cancer Classic golf tournament raised $15,350 this year for the American Cancer Society! Bank employees started the event in 2000; since its inception, First Citizens has donated over $200,000 to cancer research.

“Our employees’ generous spirit and personal connections to the cause, drives them to work hard on this event each year,” commented Randall E. Black, CEO and President. “The combination of their tireless work along with the generosity and comradery of our communities and local businesses makes me tremendously proud to be part of this company and this community.”

The 2018 Platinum sponsors included, Indigo Wireless, Northern PA Notary, and Matthews Motors. Congratulations to the 2018 winning team of Steve Sumner, Ted Darrow, Aaron Welles and Thomas Thompson.

The annual Cancer Classic event is one of many ways First Citizens employees support their local neighbors. Going Casual for a Cause has also been a successful fundraising activity where employees donate money to local families in need. On these special days, you’ll see the First Citizens team dressed a little more comfortably in the office, trading suits for jeans for the day. In the past three years these fundraising days have raised over $30,000.
