First Citizens Opens New Branch in Weaver's Store, Fivepointville

MANSFIELD, PA (October 2018) If you happen to shop at Weavers Store in Fivepointville and have been wondering what all of the construction is about, here's your answer. By year-end, First Citizens Community Bank will open the doors to their newest full-service branch, located in the entrance to Weaver's Store.

The Fivepointville office will be the Bank's second full-service Lancaster County Branch; their Mount Joy branch opened in September of 2016. In 2017, the Bank opened a temporary Loan Production Office in Narvon, Lancaster County, to serve agricultural and business customers. First Citizens knew the Narvon office was temporary; a full-service branch was needed to appropriately serve customers in the eastern county market. The new Fivepointville branch will offer consumer and business deposit and loan products, cash management services, courier services, and a 24-hour drive-up ATM.

Jeffrey Bollinger, who is familiar with the local farming and business community, has been serving the market from the Bank's Narvon Loan Production office. He and his customers have been eagerly awaiting a full-service branch. The Narvon Office will close on December 7, 2018 and the Narvon Office staff, along with their customers, will relocate to the new branch.

Jeff has over 20 years' experience in both Agriculture and Business Banking, is involved in many local organizations, and is the owner of Blue Spruce Suffolks. He is the treasurer of the Pennsylvania Suffolk Sheep Association and Chairman of the Ephrata Sheep Committee. Bollinger graduated from Penn State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Dairy, Animal Science, and Production Management.

"Since the opening of our Loan Production Office in Narvon, we've been searching for the right location to open a full-service branch," commented Doug Byers, First Citizens Market Executive. "We are eager to reinforce our Lancaster County commitment, which resonates with the First Citizens culture. So many residents and businesses are committed to a strong faith, family values, and treating people fairly. We believe Weaver's Store will allow us to better serve such an important and special region within Lancaster County."

The Bank entered southern Pennsylvania in December of 2015 with the acquisition of the First National Bank of Fredericksburg, opening offices in Lebanon, Schuylkill, and Berks counties. They then recruited a local team of highly experienced Commercial and Agricultural bankers in the market that have lived and worked in Lancaster County their entire lives. The opening of their Mount Joy office in 2016, and the Narvon Loan production Office in 2017, followed.

Hours of operation and staff additions for the new Fivepointville office will be announced shortly. Keep informed of their progress by visiting the bank's website at FirstCitizensBank.com.

First Citizens Community Bank is headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania. They currently operate 27 offices throughout Tioga, Bradford, Potter, Clinton, Union, Lebanon, Lancaster, Schuylkill and Berks counties in Pennsylvania and Allegany County New York.
