Katie Brown to Retire from First Citizens Community Bank after 28 Years of Service

MANSFIELD, PA (May 2015)...Katie Brown has announced that she will retire on Friday, May 15 after twenty eight years with the company.

Katie joined First Citizens in 1991 as a teller in the bank's Troy office as a result of the Star Savings and Loan acquisition. In 1996, she was promoted to a New Accounts position, and transferred to the Canton office. Katie was named Employee of the Year in 1998, and has trained many employees over the years.

"We have been very blessed to have had such a caring and professional individual as part of our family for such a long time," stated Randall E. Black, CEO and President. "Employees and customers who have had the good fortune of working with Katie have experienced first-hand her loyalty to the bank and her passion for providing first-class service."

First Citizens wishes Katie all the best for a healthy and happy retirement.

First Citizens Community Bank is headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania and currently operates 18 offices in Tioga, Bradford, Potter and Clinton Counties in PA, and Alleghany County, NY, as well as loan processing offices in Dallas, PA.
