First Citizens Opens Loan Production Office in Narvon, Lancaster County

MANSFIELD, PA (October 2017) On October 18, 2017, First Citizens Community Bank opened the doors to their newest location, a business and agricultural loan production office located at 2403 Main Street, Narvon, PA. This office is the Bank's second location in Lancaster County; their full-service Mount Joy office opened in September of 2016.

Two current employees, Jeffrey Bollinger and Jamie Frees, are serving the location. Bollinger is an experienced Agricultural lender and Frees a skilled small business and commercial loan officer. Their combined 43 years' banking experience, along with their familiarity with the local farming and business community, will aid the Bank as it continues to expand its presence in southern Pennsylvania.

A graduate of West Virginia University, Frees earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. He is active in his community as School Director for Owen J. Roberts School District, Chamber Member for both Tri-County and Lancaster County, and the President of the Coventry Rugby Football Club.

Bollinger graduated from Penn State University in 1997 with a Bachelor's Degree in Dairy and Animal Science and Production Management. He is the treasurer of the Pennsylvania Suffolk Sheep Association, Chairman of the Ephrata Sheep Committee, and the owner of Blue Spruce Suffolks.

"We are eager to reinforce our presence in the Lancaster market with the Narvon loan production office," commented Randall E. Black, CEO and President. "We have the right people in place to successfully deliver a high-quality community banking experience to Narvon and the surrounding areas."

The Bank entered southern Pennsylvania in December of 2015 with the acquisition of the First National Bank of Fredericksburg with offices in Lebanon, Schuylkill, and Berks counties. They then recruited a team of highly experienced Commercial and Agricultural bankers in the market. In 2016, they opened the doors to their first Lancaster County office in Mount Joy.

First Citizens Community Bank is headquartered in Mansfield, Pennsylvania. They currently operate 27 offices throughout Tioga, Bradford, Potter, Clinton, Union, Lebanon, Lancaster, Schuylkill and Berks counties in Pennsylvania and Allegany County New York.
